

Internet research

Topic : java programming

What is java??

Java is a popular programming language developed by sun microsystem in 1995. it is now owned by Oracle corporation java is used to create desktop application web application mobile apps, and enterprise software

Features of Java

- Platform independent
- Object – oriented
- Secure
- Easy to learn

Uses of Java

- Android app development
- Web application
- Desktop application
- Banking software
- Enterprise application

Advantage

- Easy to learn
- Secure
- Cross platform
- Large community support
- High performance

Conclusion

- Java is one of the most popular programming languages in the world it is widely used for development different types of software and is a great language for beginning to learn programming

Reference

Oracle java documentation

Wikipedia – java (programming language)